THEME

DRAGON GUARDIAN is a children's middle grade adventure that mixes action and family fun with exciting, memorable characters and mystical dragons, and a surprising climax that involves a ruthless antiquities dealer determined to steal the dragons for his own devious purpose.

SYNOPSIS

In San Francisco, Ben, a 12 year old video game addicted boy accidentally awakens five ancient dragons. He must succeed in enlisting his family to help him return the dragons to China for the start of Chinese New Year and before the dragons' health goes downhill while a ruthless antiquities trader steals the dragons for their powers.

NARRATIVE EXTENSIONS

DRAGON GUARDIAN was specifically designed from the ground up for digital applications (mobile game development as a free-mium model with in app purchases).

A DRAGON GUARDIAN TVS (26 x 22 minute) is in development where Ben, the Dragons, and Bingham use cool tech, the dragons' powers, and Bingham's disguises to recover stolen antiquities.

STATUS

The DRAGON GUARDIAN screenplay (a semi finalist in the Screen Craft Family Contest) and middle grade school book manuscript (22K words) are available.

Budget and schedule are available (based on Virtual Production for the animation pipeline).
